Holy Trinity Orthodox Seminary
Patriarch Tikhon Russian-American Music Institute, and the Pastoral School of the Diocese of Chicago and Mid-America (ROCOR)
announce that an academic symposium

Saint Tikhon, Patriarch of Moscow (1865-1925): His Life and Times will take place on Friday and Saturday, October 9-10, 2015, at Holy Trinity Monastery (ROCOR) in Jordanville, N.Y.

The symposium is dedicated to the 150th anniversary since the birth, and the 90th anniversary since the repose of Saint Tikhon (Bellavin), the first Patriarch of all Russia since the restoration of the patriarchate in 1917, who also served as a missionary bishop in North America from 1898-1907, and became a confessor of Orthodoxy during the time of the Bolshevik persecutions.

This conference features a diverse array of speakers, including pastors and scholars from North America and Europe, which will address manifold aspects of the life, work, and legacy of this monumental figure in the history of the Russian Orthodox Church.

Dr Scott M. Kenworthy
Associate Professor of Comparative Religion at Miami University (Oxford, OH), will deliver the keynote address on Saturday, October 10, 2015 at 10:00 AM.

Other speakers include:
• His Eminence Metropolitan Jonah (Paffhausen)
• Dr David Ford (St Tikhon’s Orthodox Theological Seminary, South Canaan, PA)
• The Very Rev. Gregory Joyce (Chicago Pastoral School, ROCOR)
• Dr Sergey Firsov (St Petersburg, Russia)
• Dr Andrey Kostryukov (Moscow, Russia)
• Matthew Namee (The Society for Orthodox Christian History in the Americas)
• Dr Alexander Gavrilin (Riga, Latvia), and others.

The online registration is NOW OPEN on the website of Holy Trinity Orthodox Seminary at www.hts.edu. The cost for the attendance of the symposium is $40 for regular participants, and $20 for students.

The keynote lecture is open to the public.

We encourage all who are interested, to come to our conference and use this opportunity to visit Holy Trinity Monastery at Jordanville – one of the most renowned centers of Orthodox monasticism in North America.

Send further inquiries and questions concerning this event to events@hts.edu.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Jordanville in the fall!