PUBLIC PROGRAM

The Orthodox Christian Seminary in the 21st Century: Pathways, Questions, and Historical Dilemmas

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2023, 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

HOLY TRINITY ORTHODOX SEMINARY, JORDANVILLE, NY

The proceedings will address a variety of topics pertaining to today's Orthodox pastoral and clerical formation. Members of Holy Trinity Seminary's faculty in conjunction with invited colleagues will gather to discuss the spiritual joys, gifts, challenges, and special promise of the "seminary task" in our time. The program will cover questions such as:

- The history of the Orthodox seminary in the West.
- The necessity of a dynamic response to the needs of today's student body and curriculum.
- Steering a straight course while reviewing and expanding new programs.
- Teaching the arts and humanities within the post-modern Orthodox context.
- The spiritual, physical, and psychological discipline of a pastoral commitment to the Church.

To take place in the Seminary's auditorium, the program will be informative and appealing to a general audience. Admission will be free of charge, and lunch will be served at midday. Starting at 3:00 pm, guests will have an opportunity to explore the Seminary campus and its unique monastery surroundings. At the same time, the Russian History Museum will offer a special exhibition spotlighting a range of historical documentation. In conclusion, the monastery brotherhood will offer snacks in advance of the All-Night Vigil in Holy Trinity Cathedral (7pm).
